

Life's Journey

During life's journey, one should expect bumps along the way.

Transition

At times, it's like my life travels on cruise control...

Transition

The years have passed by with the events you'd expect... while chasing the...

Transition

American dream. I had it all: marriage, family, home, the works... I was just entering my Golden years, with the birth of...

Transition

My first grandchild and two months later...

Transition

The second one came...life was perfect...until...

I met the bump in the road that causes you to...

Transition

spin out of control...turning your life upside down.

Transition

Yes, it was the C-word one dreads to hear. It came on March 20, 2009

Transition

We were introduced to MD Anderson a small world of its own: Where millions share their own battle and story.

Transition

My treatment was planned out. There were the usual things: scans, pic lines, chemo, the nausea, hair loss, wigs, and scarves. The hardest thing for me...

Transition

was letting go of my independent nature. I didn't feel sick...I asked the usual questions searching for answers to which there were none.

Transition

After chemo, I was stripped of my dignity and had to reach inward for strength to face my fears.

I turned to God and leaned on HIS standards, not the world's...

God looks at our heart...not our outward appearance. I learned how to let others help me...

My family

Transition

My doctors

And what about my grandchildren...they need me

Cancer brought fun times

Transition

Playing with my wigs & scarves.

Why I was even able to enjoy straight hair for once in my life...

Transition

As I look back today, I thank God for my bump in the road. Why? It allowed me to get back on the right path with God! Which path are you traveling?